Data Sharing Consent (Optional)

Raukawa works with the Māori Education Trust (MET), who can provide extra support to help with study costs. To receive this additional top-up, we need your permission to share contact information, your study details and bank details in your application with MET so they can assess and process the funding to your nominated account.

If you choose not to share your information, you could still receive the Raukawa Education Grant, but will not be eligible for the MET top-up.

Do you agree for Raukawa to share your application information with the Māori Education Trust for this purpose?
